DEBTORS' OMNIBUS REPLY TO OBJECTIONS TO THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT FOR DEBTORS' JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Motors Liquidation Company (f/k/a General Motors Corporation) and its affiliated debtors, as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), file this omnibus reply (the “Reply”) to the Objections (as defined below) interposed to their motion (the “Motion”), dated September 3, 2010, for an order approving, among other things, the disclosure statement (the “Disclosure Statement”) filed in connection with the Debtors’ Joint Chapter 11 Plan, dated August 31, 2010, and various procedures in connection with the solicitation of votes with respect to the Plan, and respectfully represent:

Preliminary Statement

1. As a result of the global economic collapse and liquidity crisis that began to surface during the second half of 2007 and into 2008, General Motors Corporation (now known as Motors Liquidation Company) and its affiliated debtors commenced these chapter 11 cases with the objective of implementing the only available means to preserve and maximize the value, viability, and continuation of the Debtors' business and, by extension, preserve and provide jobs for the Debtors' employees and others, and enhance the interests of their economic stakeholders -- a sale of substantially all their assets pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code to NGMCO, Inc. (now known as General Motors, LLC, "New GM"), a U.S. Treasury-sponsored purchaser (the "363 Transaction").

2. The 363 Transaction closed on July 10, 2009, and, following the closing, the Debtors have been winding down their estates, liquidating their remaining assets, and formulating a plan of liquidation to conclude these cases. The Plan and Disclosure Statement represent the culmination of efforts of the Debtors, the U.S. Treasury, the official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"), various other parties in interest, and their respective advisors to address the issues critical to developing and implementing a chapter 11 plan.

3. To that end, the Debtors' filed their Plan and related Disclosure Statement on August 31, 2010, and on or about September 3, 2010, the Debtors served notice of the hearing on the adequacy of their Disclosure Statement on over 2,021,000 creditors and other parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases. Approximately 55 objections to the approval of the Disclosure

Statement have been filed and served by various parties in interest (collectively, the “Objections,” and the objecting parties, the “Objectors”).¹

4. Of the Objections received, only thirteen relate to the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement. The remaining Objections are, in fact, objections to confirmation of the proposed Plan or general statements of dissatisfaction with the 363 Transaction or the general effects of chapter 11 on creditors and equity holders. A synopsis of the Debtors’ response or proposed resolution to the Objections is outlined in the table annexed hereto as Exhibit “A.”

5. It is the Debtors’ intention to modify the Disclosure Statement and the Plan in an attempt to resolve certain of the concerns articulated in the Objections which relate to the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement. To that end, the Debtors intend to file an amended Disclosure Statement (the “Amended Disclosure Statement”) and Plan (the “Amended Plan”) as soon as practicable.

6. In order to address a number of the Objections, the Debtors’ Amended Plan and Amended Disclosure Statement will, among other things, provide an estimate or estimated range for the Allowed Claims² in each creditor Class. The Amended Plan will also annex as exhibits the GUC Trust Agreement and the Environmental Response Trust Consent Decree and Settlement Agreement. Additional revisions will be made to address other Objections as set forth in Exhibit “A.”

7. The Debtors believe that all other Objections should be overruled for the reasons set forth herein and in Exhibit “A.” The Debtors submit that, with the proposed revisions, the Amended Disclosure Statement will contain all necessary information to satisfy the requirements of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, and that the Plan is confirmable, fair and reasonable, and in the best interests of all parties in interest. Indeed, inasmuch as the Plan is a liquidating plan and the only consideration available for distribution to creditors entitled to vote on the Plan is very discrete, the scope and materiality of disclosure must be viewed in the perspective of these cases and the available alternatives.

¹ Of these 56 Objections, 12 were received by Debtors’ counsel but, as of the filing of this Reply, have not been filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

² Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Motion and/or the Debtors’ Plan.

Confirmation Issues Should Be Determined at the Hearing on Confirmation

8. Many of the Objections raise issues related to the confirmability of the Plan and do not represent a basis for objecting to the Disclosure Statement. As the Court is well-aware, confirmation issues and challenges should be determined at a hearing to consider confirmation of a plan of reorganization and in accordance with the procedures attendant to such a hearing. In re CRIIMI MAE, Inc., 251 B.R. 796, 799 (Bankr. D. Md. 2000) (“objections to confirmation of the plan, as opposed to the adequacy of disclosure of information in the Disclosure Statement, would not be heard and determined at the [disclosure statement] [h]earing”); In re Waterville Timeshare Group, 67 B.R. 412 (Bankr. D.N.H. 1986) (holding that a conflict regarding the wisdom of a litigation compromise that was an integral part of the plan did not render the debtor’s disclosure statement inadequate); In re Featherworks Corp., Inc., 45 B.R. 455 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1984). The Debtors have the right to have challenges to confirmation determined on the basis of an appropriate record and the facts and circumstances developed up to and including the hearing on the confirmation of the Plan.

9. The hearing on the adequacy of a disclosure statement should not be seized upon by creditors to address the confirmability of a chapter 11 plan. As one court stated, “[i]f creditors oppose their treatment in the plan, but the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information, issues respecting the plan's confirmability will await the hearing on confirmation." In re Scioto Valley Mortgage Co., 88 B.R. 168, 172 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1988). In In re Matter of Featherworks Corp., Inc., the Court approved the adequacy of an amended disclosure statement filed in connection with a plan that almost exactly mirrored a previously-filed plan that was not confirmed. 45 B.R. at 457. In approving the adequacy of the disclosure statement the court held that it was "too early before the hearing on confirmation to conclude that the present plan cannot be confirmed. That determination must await examination of the evidence offered at the hearing on confirmation." Id. (emphasis added).

10. In In re Waterville Timeshare Group, the Court recognized the inherent limitations of a disclosure statement hearing, observing that "approval of a disclosure statement is an interlocutory action in the progress of a chapter 11 reorganization effort leading to a confirmation hearing at which all parties have ample opportunity to object to confirmation of the plan." 67 B.R. at 413. Moreover, the Bankruptcy Court observed that section 1125(a) excludes from a disclosure statement hearing those strategic objections "designed to delay and hobble the efforts of the [plan proponent] to put a plan before the court." Id. at 414. This is precisely what certain Objectors may be seeking to do through the Objections.

11. Solicitation of a chapter 11 plan should be delayed or prohibited only when the proposed plan is "patently" or "facially" unconfirmable. See In re Cardinal Congregate I, 121 B.R. 760, 764 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1990) ("the Court will not look behind the disclosure statement to decide [confirmation] issues at the hearing on the adequacy of the disclosure statement"); In re Copy Crafters Quickprint, Inc., 92 B.R. 973, 980 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 1988) ("care must be taken to ensure that the hearing on the disclosure statement does not turn into a confirmation hearing, due process considerations are protected and objections are restricted to those defects that could not be cured by voting”) (emphasis added).

12. Contrary to the assertions set forth by the Asbestos Claimants’ Committee and the Future Claimants’ Representative, the Plan is neither “patently” nor “facially” unconfirmable. To prevail on this argument, the Asbestos Claimants’ Committee and the Future Claimants’ Representative must demonstrate as a threshold matter that the Plan is not confirmable as a matter of law because the plan “is so fatally flawed that confirmation is impossible.” See In re Cardinal Congregate I, 121 B.R. 760, 764 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1990) (citing In re Monroe Well Serv., Inc., 80 B.R. 324, 333 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987)); accord In re U.S. Brass Corp., 194 B.R. 420, 428 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1996). To the contrary, the Plan represents the only viable conduit for exit from these chapter 11 cases and provides for a simple pro rata distribution of all remaining assets to holders of allowed unsecured claims. The assertion by the Asbestos Claimants’ Committee and the Future Claimants’ Representative that the Plan is unconfirmable because it improperly implements a channeling injunction for asbestos personal injury claims simply is unfounded and, in any event, should be deferred until confirmation. The Asbestos Claimants’ Committee and the Future Claimants’ Representative have cited no controlling precedent in the Second Circuit to support their position. Moreover, the Asbestos Claimants’ Committee acknowledges in its Objection that “it is not clear that a plan can successfully challenge future asbestos claims to a trust absent the use of Section 524(g) of the Bankruptcy Code.” (Asbestos Claimants’ Committee Objection ¶ 18 (emphasis added).)

13. None of the Objectors has raised any issue that would warrant a finding that the Plan is fatally flawed and not confirmable as a matter of law. At best, there are litigable issues relating to confirmation, which, if at all, should be raised and addressed at that time. The Court has complete discretion to defer all of such Objections until the confirmation hearing rather than use the hearing on the adequacy of the disclosure statement as a substitute for that adjudicatory proceeding. See Cardinal Congregate I, 121 B.R. at 764 (citing Monroe Well, 80 B.R. at 333); accord U.S. Brass, 194 B.R. at 428. The Court need not “look behind the disclosure statement to decide such issues at the hearing on [its] adequacy.” Cardinal Congregate I, 121 B.R. at 764.

14. The approval of the Disclosure Statement and the commencement of solicitation of acceptances of the Plan as soon as practicable after the filing of an Amended Plan and Amended Disclosure Statement is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest.

7304	Winkelmann SP. z.o.o.	Disclosure Statement does not provide that individual claimants preserve rights of setoff.	This is a confirmation objection rather than an objection to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement. Neither the Plan nor the Disclosure Statement limit a claimant's right of setoff to the extent such right has been asserted in the claimant's proof of claim and has been properly preserved.
7307 7308	Town of Salina County of Onondaga, State of New York	1. Lack of Adequate Information. a. Disclosure Statement does not specifically set forth the Debtors' classification of claimant's claim.	1.a. It is not required that the Disclosure Statement classify each claim if the classification scheme is clear. The definition provided in the Plan for Property Environmental Claims entitled to treatment in Class 4 (Property Environmental Claims) limits such claims to "Claim[s] or Cause[s] of Action by the Governmental Authorities against the Debtors under Environmental Laws with respect to the [Environmental Response Trust Properties and the Priority Order Sites]." (Plan § 1.112) A Schedule of the Environmental Response Trust Properties and the Priority Order Sites will be annexed as exhibits to the Environmental Response Trust Consent Decree and Settlement Agreement which in turn will be attached to the Debtors' Amended Plan.

		b. The Disclosure Statement does not provide the documents contained in the Plan Supplement, in particular, the GUC Trust Agreement and the Environmental Response Trust Agreement. c. Disclosure Statement does not provide an estimation of the value of assets available for distribution.	The definition also makes clear that a claim may be bifurcated into a claim in Class 3 (General Unsecured Claims) and a claim in Class 4 (Property Environmental Claims). In that respect, the Disclosure Statement provides that a single creditor may receive multiple ballots. 1.b. The GUC Trust Agreement will be included as an exhibit to the Debtors' Amended Plan and transmitted to those entitled to vote on the Plan with the Debtors' Amended Disclosure Statement. 1.c. At this juncture it is not possible to appropriately value expected recoveries as they will depend on (a) the value of New GM –a separate company from the Debtors, and (b) the ultimate amount of Allowed Claims in Class 3 (General Unsecured Claims). Nevertheless, the Disclosure Statement describes how the New GM Securities owned by the Debtors will be distributed on a pro rata basis. In any event, the Debtors do not believe that this should be an impediment for approving the Disclosure Statement. See 11 U.S.C. § 1125(b) “[t]he court may approve a disclosure statement without a valuation of the debtor or an appraisal of the debtor’s assets;” see also In re Williams Commc’ns, 281 B.R. 216, 221 (Bankr. However, because the Debtors' Plan is a plan of liquidation, it is very unlikely that it would not meet the best interest test of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. 2. This is not an objection to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement. Claimants' legal impediment to hold New GM Securities is not an issue for the Debtors to address in their Disclosure Statement and should not preclude the Court from approving the Disclosure Statement.

Claimants' sole purpose to access and inform itself of the underlying wind-down Budget is to evaluate the feasibility of the Plan. This is not an objection to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement. There is no requirement to establish a business justification in the Disclosure Statement to return excess funding to the lenders under the DIP Credit Agreement that is not necessary to fund implementation of the Plan. Moreover, repayment of the DIP Credit Agreement, to the extent of funds no longer necessary to fund the uses contemplated therein, is consistent with the terms of such agreement approved by the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors believe such clarification is unnecessary at this juncture and that the matter will be resolved by the moving and responding parties in separate proceedings before this Court. At this stage, the Debtors think it is prudent to only include a range for the estimated amount of allowed claims, rather than a further break-down of this range. The Amended Disclosure Statement will include a range of the expected size of the claims pool. Furthermore, "[t]here is no requirement in case law or statute that a disclosure statement estimate the value of specific unliquidated claims. . . . The Debtors believe that the definition of Protected Party in the Plan is adequate, detailed, and sufficiently discloses which parties are included in that definition. 1.b. This is not an asbestos-driven case, and the Debtors do not believe that the ultimate Allowed amount of asbestos-related claims will have a material effect on the recovery for all general unsecured claims, including asbestos-related claims. The respective constituencies in these cases have retained experts to estimate the Debtors' aggregate liability for present and future asbestos claims. To the extent such experts are prepared to share their conclusions and inclusions of such conclusions would not delay approval of the Disclosure Statement, the Debtors are more than willing to set forth a range of asbestos-related claims based in such estimates. But sufficient information already exists. 1.c. The genesis of the Debtors' alleged liability with respect to the asbestos-related claims is irrelevant to the Disclosure Statement process and voting on the Plan. The bar date for filing claims has passed, and the self-serving proposed disclosure suggested by the Future Claimants' Representative is unnecessary and inappropriate.

This information also is irrelevant to the Disclosure Statement and Plan voting process. First, any meaningful insurance recovery is speculative and would only provide a slight additional recovery if it were available to the holders of allowed claims in Classes 3 and 5 given the overall size of the claims pool. The amount of disclosure requested by the Future Claimants' Representative is overbroad, unnecessary, and merely demonstrates a desire for delay rather than meaningful disclosure. 2. This is not an objection to the adequacy of the information contained the Plan. Nevertheless, the Plan is not patently unconfirmable merely because it attempts to channel all asbestos-related claims to a special trust that will address all asbestos-related personal injury claims. The Debtors are not proposing to utilize a Bankruptcy Code section 524(g) injunction. Rather, the Plan provides a mechanism to provide fair and equitable treatment to both present and future asbestos-related personal injury claims and, in that regard, protect the interests of future claimants who do not know that they may have a claim. This information is not relevant to a decision to vote for or against the Plan. 1.c. The Amended Disclosure Statement will annex historical financial information and projections that set forth the funds available for the wind-down for the post-Effective Date period. The financial information, among other things, will disclose how much funding will be made available initially to the GUC Trust in order to fund the wind-down. 1.d. The Amended Disclosure Statement will state that, post-confirmation, the Debtors will comply with all ongoing United States Trustee requirements. 1.e. This is a confirmation objection rather than an objection to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement. Moreover, the Debtors do not believe it is either necessary or required to name each and every individual beneficiary

The Debtors will modify the Plan and the Disclosure Statement to include the additional "carve-outs" proposed as well as to reflect compliance with the New York Rules of Professional Conduct. The Debtors will also amend the Disclosure Statement to reflect the provisions of Bankruptcy Code section 1141(d)(3).
7333	California Department of Toxic Substances Control	1. Lack of Adequate Information. a. The Disclosure Statement does not provide the documents to be contained in the Plan Supplement, in particular, the GUC Trust Agreement, the Environmental Response Trust Agreement, the Environmental Response Trust Consent Decree and Settlement Agreement, the Avoidance Action Trust Agreement, and the Asbestos Trust Agreement. b. The Disclosure Statement does not provide an explanation of what creditors of the Debtors would receive if there is no substantive consolidation so that creditors can evaluate to what extent substantive consolidation impacts their recovery. 2. The Disclosure Statement should not be approved pending adjudication of the Committee Motion.	1.a. The GUC Trust Agreement and the Environmental Response Trust Consent Decree and Settlement Agreement will be included as an exhibit to the Debtors' Amended Plan and transmitted with the Debtors' Amended Disclosure Statement to those entitled to vote on the Plan. The other documents will be included in the Plan Supplement. 1.b. Adequate information related to substantive consolidation already exists in the Disclosure Statement. No additional disclosure is required under the circumstances. 2. There is no basis to delay approval of the Disclosure Statement until the Committee Motion is decided. Based on the hearing to be held on the Committee Motion scheduled for October 21, 2010, the Debtors will include

7376	The ILCO Remediation Group	1. Lack of Adequate Information. a. Disclosure Statement does not provide sufficient details regarding the valuation of the assets to be distributed. b. The Disclosure Statement does not provide the documents contained in the Plan Supplement, in particular, the GUC Trust Agreement, the Environmental Response Trust Agreement, the Environmental Response Trust Consent Decree and Settlement Agreement, the Avoidance Action Trust Agreement, and the Asbestos Trust Agreement. c. From the information provided in the Disclosure Statement, it is not possible to ascertain whether the best interest test of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code will be met. d. Questions whether the court-approved ADR Procedures will be imposed upon environmental claimants.	a. This is a confirmation objection and not an objection to the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement. See 11 U.S.C. § 1125(b) (“[t]he court may approve a disclosure statement without a valuation of the debtor or an appraisal of the debtor’s assets”).
7377	The BKK Joint Defense Group		b. The GUC Trust Agreement and the Environmental Response Trust Consent Decree and Settlement Agreement will be included as an exhibit to the Debtors’ Amended Plan and transmitted with the Debtors’ Amended Disclosure Statement to those entities entitled to vote on the Plan. The other documents will be included in the Plan Supplement. c. This is a confirmation objection and need not be addressed at this juncture. However, because the Debtors’ Plan is a plan of liquidation, it is very unlikely that it would not meet the best interest test of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. d. Nothing in the Disclosure Statement remotely alters the ADR Procedures approved by the Court, which presently excludes environmental claims from being subject to the ADR Procedures. 7427	Terrie Sizemore (personal injury claimant)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Objects to the 363 Transaction. 2. Requests further information to verify accuracy of certain statements in the background section of the Disclosure Statement. 3. Asserts that notice of the Bar Date was not given to her. 4. Objects to certain provisions of the Plan. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. This issue is moot as the 363 Transaction has been consummated and Sizemore has not appealed the order approving the 363 Transaction. 2. The statements contained in the background section of the Disclosure Statement are accurate and provide adequate information for claimants entitled to vote to evaluate whether to accept or reject the Debtors' Plan. No specific additional language has been proposed. 3. This is not an objection to the adequacy of information contained in the Disclosure Statement. The existence and effect of the Bar Date is adequately described in the Disclosure Statement. Moreover, claimant was provided with notice of the bar date (Affidavit of Service of Barbara Kelley Keane of the (i) Notice of Bar Dates for Filing of Proofs of Claim; and (ii) a proof of claim form, dated October 14, 2009 [Docket No. 4238]) 4. The objection to certain provisions of the Plan constitutes a confirmation objection rather than an objection to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement. In any event, to the extent claimant did not file a proof of claim, she is not entitled to vote on the Plan and thus her attempt to object to it is futile.

7046	Thomas M. Smalley (personal injury claimant)	Claimant appears to object to the Debtors' Plan and requests a greater return than that offered by the Plan.	This is a confirmation objection rather than an objection to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement.
7072	Marcella I. Townsend (retiree)	Requests Bankruptcy Judge inform whether retirement plan will be terminated.	Treatment of pension obligations was addressed in connection with the 363 Transaction. This is a confirmation objection rather than an objection to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement. The Debtors will endeavor to provide claimant with additional information as to the effect of the 363 Transaction on her pension.

Court			Statement.
7366	Robert W. Hartnagel	Claimant asserts that certain unidentified claims by shareholders may exist related to a class action and securities litigation settlement. In that regard, claimant believes additional disclosure is required regarding those claims.	Nowhere in the Objection does claimant provide any specifics regarding the alleged additional claims. Debtors do not believe any additional disclosure is required.
7153	Leo C. Hageman	Various objections from parties in interest, including creditors, bondholders, retirees, and equity security holders who essentially are seeking a greater return than offered by the Plan.	To the extent these are proper objections at all, they are confirmation objections rather than objections to the adequacy of the information contained in the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement adequately describes the treatment to be afforded to the various Classes, which treatment is in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code.
